

Unexplored ways of Museum Partnerships between Africa, Europe and beyond

Lecture by Emery Patrick Effiboley, Assistant Professor, Deputy Head, Department of History and Archaeology, University of Abomey-Calavi, Benin

Thursday, 25 October 2018, 7 p.m.
University of Zurich
Ethnographic Museum
Pelikanstrasse 40, CH-8001 Zürich

Photos: Patrick Effiboley

For the past decades, museum partnerships between Africa and Europe were based on the transfer of knowledge and practices – with more or less success. In this era of globalization, in which communities are fighting to preserve their identities, there is a need to develop innovative partnerships that go beyond the traditional ways, to fully share heritage in order to build a cohesive world for the good of all.

<http://www.agenda.uzh.ch/record.php?id=38958>